

ucisa Event Privacy Notice

Introduction

This Privacy Notice tells you what to expect in relation to personal information about you which is collected, handled and processed by ucisa.

We acknowledge and agree that any personal data of yours that we handle will be processed in accordance with all applicable data protection laws in force from time to time; on 25 May 2018, the General Data Protection Regulation (2016/679) (“GDPR”) and the Data Protection Act 2018 which now applies.

Who we are

Founded in 1992, ucisa is the member-led professional body for digital practitioners in education. Open and inclusive, we work together to use our collective technical knowledge and digital expertise to help transform teaching, learning and research by supporting operational efficiency and an excellent student experience.

Almost all UK Higher Education institutions are ucisa members along with a growing number of Further Education and Sixth Form colleges.

ucisa is a registered not-for-profit charity and supports its community by running a wide range of events and conferences backed up with surveys, reports and best practice toolkits and guides that help our members better meet the ever-increasing digital demands of twenty-first-century education in the UK.

We also work closely with technology and digital service suppliers to the sector – helping them better understand our needs so that they can deliver the solutions that members need.

ucisa is a Registered Company in England No. 09349804, whose Registered Office is 30 St Giles, Oxford, OX1 3LE. ucisa is registered as a charity with the Charity Commission of England and Wales, No. 1161218.

The correspondence address for data protection purposes is ucisa, University of Oxford, 13 Banbury Road, Oxford, OX2 6NN. Alternatively you can email the Data Protection Officer at [dpo@ucisa.ac.uk].

Your rights in relation to personal data

1. Rights to be informed

You have the right to be provided with clear, transparent and easily understandable information about how we use your personal data and your rights.

2. Right of access

You have the right to obtain access to your personal data (if we are processing it) and certain other information (similar to that provided in this Privacy Notice).

3. Right to rectification

You are entitled to have your personal data corrected if it is inaccurate or incomplete.

4. Right to erasure

This is also known as 'the right to be forgotten' and, in simple terms; enable you to request the deletion or removal of your personal data where there is no compelling reason for us to keep using it.

This is where the personal data is no longer necessary for the purpose for which it was originally collected or processed it for; and we are relying on consent as the lawful basis for holding your data, and you withdraw your consent or where we are relying on legitimate interests as the basis for processing, your data and you object to the processing of your data, and there is no overriding legitimate interest to continue this processing. There is no right to erasure for data collected under the lawful basis of Contract or Public Task where that purpose remains.

5. Right to restrict processing

You have the right to 'block' or suppress further use of your personal data in certain circumstances. When processing is restricted, we can still store your personal data, but may not use it further.

6. Right of data portability

You have the right to obtain and reuse your personal data in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format in certain circumstances where the lawful basis for processing the information is consent or for the performance of a contract; and the processing has been carried out by automated means. This right does not apply to paper-based files.

7. Right to object to processing

You have the right to object to our processing of your personal data for our legitimate business interests or for direct marketing purposes.

8. Right to withdraw consent to processing

If you have given your consent to us to process your personal data for a particular purpose (for example, direct marketing), you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time (although if you do so, it does not mean that any processing of your personal data up to that point is unlawful).

9. Right to make a complaint to the data protection authorities

If you would like to exercise your data protection rights or if you are unhappy with how we have handled your personal data, please feel free to contact us by using the details set out at www.ucisa.ac.uk.

If you're not satisfied with our response to any enquiries or complaint or believe our processing of your personal data does not comply with data protection law, you can make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO):
